

Legal and Business Affairs Manager - Princess Pictures

- Location: Melbourne
- Part time: 3-4 days
- Salary negotiable depending on experience

About Princess Pictures

Princess Pictures is one of Victoria's leading content production companies. We make scripted and unscripted programs for Broadcasters, SVOD's and other platforms in Australia and the international marketplace, along with the occasional feature film. We have a busy, vibrant office in Prahran and we are seeking a part time lawyer to join our team.

About the Role

This is an exciting opportunity for an experienced lawyer with a desire to work in a small team. Reporting to the Commercial Director, your responsibilities will include drafting and negotiating agreements associated with the development, production and distribution of audio visual content with creators, production personnel, talent, government stakeholders, broadcasters, platforms and other financiers. You will also be advising production teams on clearances and other legal issues along with managing general contracts for the business as required.

The role requires someone who enjoys working collaboratively with others, is self-motivated and has a genuine interest in the screen industry.

About You

You will have tertiary qualifications in Law and the skills required to draft, negotiate and finalise contracts along with a strong background in intellectual property rights and contract management. You will be a team player with an even temperament, able to manage complex negotiations and also achieve responsible and desirable outcomes for the business.

Qualifications and Experience:

- An Australian law degree or equivalent that allows you to practice in Australia
- At least 2-4 years of experience drafting and negotiating contracts, with experience in intellectual property agreements preferred.
- Experience working in a contract and rights management, ideally within a legal or business affairs team.
- Demonstrated ability exercise initiative and independent judgment.
- Excellent communication skills and the ability to negotiate effectively whilst maintaining productive relationships with clients and stakeholders.
- The ability to work well in a small team and under pressure to achieve required outcomes.

This position is not suitable for those aspiring to establish an alternative career as a screenwriter, director or producer, so please do not submit an application if that is your long-term goal.

How to Apply

Please submit your resume and covering letter to our Managing Director, Mrs. Jenni Tosi via email.

jenni@princess.net.au.

Closing Date: 5.00pm April 18, 2019